

In partnership with:

Taking Charge: Fall Prevention

Home Check

Your Name

Programs and activities offered by the West Virginia University Extension Service are available to all persons without regard to race, color, sex, disability, religion, age, veteran status, political beliefs, sexual orientation, national origin, and marital or family status. Issued in furtherance of Cooperative Extension work, Acts of May 8 and June 30, 1914, in cooperation with the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Director, Cooperative Extension Service, West Virginia University. FH11-53

Taking Charge: Fall Prevention Home Check

Please check the box if the home safety action needs to be improved.

Keep Kitchen efficient: easy to get to make walking simple

Are pavement and steps even and free from cracks?

Is grass or lawn smooth, without holes?

Are walks and steps clear of overhanging bushes, shrubs, leaves, and twigs?

Is walkway well-lighted?

Are there handrails on both sides of steps?

through activity and knowledge

Do you exercise regularly to improve balance and coordination?

Have you asked your healthcare provider: "What exercises are best for me?"

Have you asked your pharmacist or healthcare provider:

1. "Do any of my medicines increase the risk of falling?"

2. "Should I take a supplement to prevent falls?"

Do you get an annual eye exam?

Are your shoes always suited to your activity?

Do you drink plenty of water?

Keep Food Preparation areas

Taking Charge: Fall Prevention Home Check

Please check the box if the home safety action needs to be improved.

Maintain Walks/Driveways around and items at a comfortable reach

Are everyday items on low shelves within easy reach?

Is a sturdy stepladder there when you need to reach something on a high shelf?

Are items you use every day (toaster and can opener) on your counter or easy to reach?

Are walkways and eating areas clear of clutter?

Are spills cleaned right away and floors dried completely after you clean the floor or a spill?

Do you use a rolling cart to move things easily?

Improve your Personal fall safety

safe and organized

Are knives kept sharp?

Are knives stored in a way that prevents you from getting cut?

Are stove knobs clearly marked and easy to grasp?

Do pots and pans have flat bottoms and lids that fit?

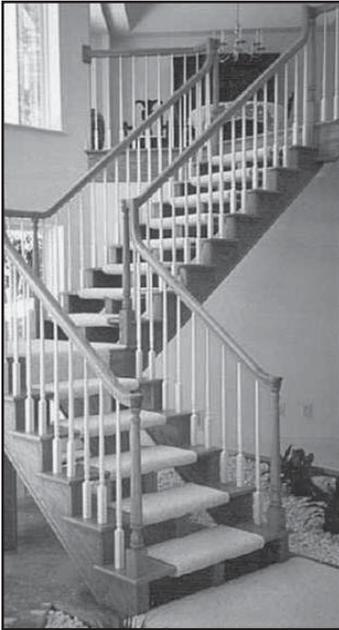

Are potholders kept next to the stove or oven?

Is there a working smoke detector in the kitchen?

Taking Charge: Fall Prevention Home Check

Please check the box if the home safety action needs to be improved.

Keep the Stairs safe to walk up and

Is the porch closed in with a sturdy railing?

Is there good lighting?

Are floor boards nailed securely and not rotted?

Are there handrails to use when you step down from the porch to the walk or yard?

Are porch chairs, swings, and other furniture sturdy?

Is there a container to hold outdoor items when not in use?

Are flower containers away from doors and traffic patterns?

Make Bedroom easy to move in &

Are walkways and the area around the garage door free from clutter?

Is the garage floor dry?

Is there a light switch where you enter the garage?

Is the garage well-lighted?

Are items you use often stored on shelves you can reach easily?

Are toolboxes and supplies light enough for you to carry easily?

Taking Charge: Fall Prevention Home Check

Please check the box if the home safety action needs to be improved.

Make the Porch clutter-free

down

Are handrails on both sides of the stairs?

Is there a light switch at the top and the bottom of the stairs?

Are stairs free of clutter?

Can you see the step's edges, where one step ends and the next begins?

If stairs are carpeted, is the carpet not loose or torn?

safe when dark

Keep Garage trouble-free

Are walkways clear of clutter (shoes, clothing, magazines)?

Are beds made with spreads or comforters off the floor?

Are electrical cords along walls and out of walkways?

Is there a lamp within easy reach on each side of your bed?

Is there a night-light to light the walkway from your bedroom to the bathroom?

Is there a sturdy chair with arms for dressing?

Taking Charge: Fall Prevention Home Check

Please check the box if the home safety action needs to be improved.

Keep Living Room free of fall traps

Are walkways and areas around your couch, chairs, and coffee table free of clutter?

Do rugs and carpets stay in place and have nonskid backing?

Are edges of carpet, linoleum, and doorsills smooth so you cannot trip?

Are electrical cords along walls and not across walkways?

Is the carpet in good condition, without any tears?

Can you easily sit down and get up from chairs and couches?

Is there a light switch where you enter the living room?

Are lamps within easy reach?

Make the Bathroom easy to use and nonslippery

Are grab bars inside the tub strong enough to hold your weight?

Are grab bars next to the toilet?

Do you have a toilet seat extender to make the toilet seat higher so you do not have to sit down as far?

Is there a nonslip mat or tape on the bottom of your tub?

Do floor rugs stay in place and have nonskid backing?